Logo

The R3 logo is built around three fundamental ideas: Properties, Trust and Growth.

The architectural outer frame represents the company's foundation in real estate and property development.

The interconnected and continuous forms express trust, stability and the relationships that R3 builds with its clients and partners.

The triangles represents movements and progression, symbolizing development, expansion and the pursuit of greater value.

Together, these elements create an identity that represents not only what R3 builds, but the relationships and growth that surround every development.
